

BE A PART OF SCOUTING'S 100TH
ANNIVERSARY CELEBRATION!

DON'T MISS THE FOURTH ANNUAL TEN COMMANDMENT HIKE

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 27, 2009

A Scout is Reverent! More than 400 people attended the Ten Commandment Hike in 2008! Make sure that you don't miss the fun of the 2009 hike!

What is a Ten Commandment Hike? It's a unique and exciting way to embrace the concept of religious tolerance, learn local history, participate in community service, and have fun. And it's a good way to work off that Thanksgiving dinner!

The Ten Commandment Hike is open to all Cub Scouts, Boy Scouts, Venturers, and their families. The hike will be just under four miles, visiting ten religious institutions in the Shadyside and North Oakland sections of Pittsburgh.

Ample FREE parking is available on Carnegie Mellon University's Campus. The Hike will start promptly at 9:00am.

The cost of the hike is $7.00 per hiker. The fee includes a special patch, hot chocolate along the way, juice at lunch, and dessert. ALL hikers must be registered and paid before commencing the hike. Bring a bag lunch, water, snacks, AND a canned good for the food bank. Dress appropriately for the weather.

At each stop, for approximately 20 minutes, a member of the Clergy will discuss a specific Commandment, describe the basic theological tenets of their religion, and point out interesting architectural and historical aspects of their House of Worship. They may also take a few questions. We will hike as one group to each place of worship in the order of the Commandments. Restrooms will be available at various stops along the way.

REGISTER EARLY !! DON'T MISS OUT!!
REGISTRATION IS LIMITED TO THE FIRST 500 PARTICIPANTS.

Listen to and learn from clergy who are: Jewish, Byzantine Catholic, Episcopal, Lutheran, Roman Catholic, Baptist, Christian Scientists, Hindu, Buddhist, Greek Orthodox & Zoroastrian.

The hike will end at approximately 4:30 PM. Small children are welcome and they may hike for free, but it is strongly recommended that you bring a stroller. All Scouts and Scouters MUST wear a Class "A" uniform.
